

This table presents the codes and categories that emerged from the data, including the 36 articles used in the study, based on the research's title and purpose, as well as the gaps identified during the research process. It is the primary and sole source we rely on to report the findings.